Habitat for Humanity Greater Orlando & Osceola County expands free roof repair program to City of Orlando residents

Habitat for Humanity Greater Orlando & Osceola County has expanded its free roof repair program to City of Orlando residents, thanks to funding from the City of Orlando.

City of Orlando residents join residents of unincorporated Orange County as potential beneficiaries of this program. In September 2020, Habitat Orlando & Osceola first opened its free roof repair program funded by the Orange County Government. Applications from unincorporated Orange County residents are still being accepted.

Eligibility requirements include*:

- No mobile or manufactured homes
- No townhomes
- Maximum income requirements (please see graph)
- Must own and live in your home
- Taxes & mortgage are current
- Located in either the City of Orlando or unincorporated Orange County

Income Limits 2021
Household Size	Maximum Monthly Gross Income	Maximum Annual Gross Income
1	$3,396	$40,750
2	$3,879	$46,550
3	$4,363	$52,350
4	$4,846	$58,150
5	$5,238	$62,850
6	$5,625	$67,500
7	$6,013	$72,150
8	$6,400	$76,800

*Please Note: Habitat Orlando & Osceola staff will determine whether to send applications to the City of Orlando or Orange County based on the location of the applicant's property. The eligibility requirements above are intended provide an overview, rather than an exhaustive list. Award will be subject to approval of final application through either the City of Orlando or Orange County and funding availability. Applications will be received on a first-come, first-served basis.

Interested applicants should visit HabitatOrlandoOsceola.org/Repair-My-Roof/ to learn more about the program and take a prequalification survey, the first step in the application process.
